

Emperor's Meteor Has Rough Voyage

London, April 18.—The voyage from New York of the German imperial yacht Meteor, which anchored off Hythe, in Southampton water, yesterday evening, was by no means uneventful. She had much bad weather, and once even the safety of the yacht was endangered. Lieutenant Commander Karpf, Emperor William's representative on board the Meteor, said:

"On April 11, while we were towing a head easterly blow sprang up. Owing to the heavy seas our consort, the steamer Scotia, was only just able to keep steering way. The seas broke over her continually. At 4 o'clock in the morning of April 12 the Meteor's hoistway carried away. We cut away the tow rope, hove to and tried hard to secure the hoistway, but we found that to be impossible, and the hoistway was ultimately carried away, seriously endangering the safety of the yacht and all on board of her. We managed, however, to recover the spar. The weather became so bad that we were obliged to leave it for twenty-four hours. Thereafter the weather was generally fine. We towed the rest of the way to port. The Meteor behaved splendidly and remained dry throughout the bad weather. She is a fast sailor."

Belgian Government Declines To Yield

Brussels, April 15.—The Government has firmly declined to yield on the question of revision and unless King Leopold should override the Ministry there seems to be nothing to prevent the development of a serious situation.

In the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon M. Noujean presented a manifesto on behalf of the Liberal members in order to enable the country to pronounce on the revision question. This manifesto pointed out that the time was critical and the country threatened with civil war, and for the Government to consent to a loyal and constitutional settlement could not be represented as a surrender to popular disorder.

To this challenge the Premier, M. de Smet de Nayer, replied briefly by declaring that the right of dissolution rested with the King. He added that he felt it his duty to warn Parliament against the rumors of Government concessions.

J. Janssen, the Liberal leader, retorted that the Chamber could, by a motion, call upon the King to change the Ministry. He said there was no sign of conciliation in the Premier's reply to M. Noujean and that responsibility for the consequences would rest on the Government.

At this point M. Wood, a Catholic deputy, who, although not a minister, is a powerful adherent of the Government, jumped up and exclaimed: "There is no civil war, but only civil dissension. You demand our resignation, but you shall not have it."

The President then declared the incident closed and the House rose.

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon Church)—Punchbowl street—Sunday services: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; regular service, preaching at 11:30 a. m.; Young People's Mutual Improvement Association, at 7 p. m.; primary meeting, for children, Friday, at 3 p. m.; Relief Society meeting at 10 a. m., on Saturday. All are respectfully invited to attend our meetings and examine our doctrines. Free to all; no contributions; services in Hawaiian. Elder Wm. M. Waddaups, in charge.

Seventh-Day Adventist Chapel—Saturday, Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.; Wednesday, prayer and missionary meeting at 7:30 p. m. All are welcome. J. H. Behrens, pastor.

Portuguese Evangelical Church—Corner of Miller and Punchbowl Sts., Rev. A. V. Soares, pastor.—Preaching in Portuguese at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 2:30 p. m., conducted in English; W. A. Bowen, superintendent. Prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30.

The Famous D. & C. Roses.

The love for roses is universal, even those not caring for other flowers paying their tribute of admiration to this one. But many who admire, feel that they cannot gratify their taste, regarding roses as an expensive luxury, and their culture as a costly hobby. To this class, particularly the remarkable offer now being made by The Dinglee & Conard Co., West Grove, Penna., will strongly appeal. From the million rose plants which this house grows annually, in over a thousand varieties—D. & C. Roses are known the world over—some of the most desirable in form, color and hardiness, have been selected, and 15 D. & C. Roses are now offered for $1.00. These roses are all different kinds—no two colors alike—and are properly labeled. They will bloom this season, and continuously. Strong, well-rooted plants, not slips. This collection is sent to any part of the United States and Colonies, post paid, satisfaction and safe arrival guaranteed.

The great 33d annual edition of The Dinglee & Conard Co.'s New Guide to Rose Culture, 114 pages, and the leading Rose catalogue in America, as well as a valuable instructor on all other flowers worth growing, will be sent free on request.

The Anti-Saloon League workers and their attorneys are on the trail of Treasurer Wright. They want him to enforce the closing of the Prime beer saloons according to the decision of Judge Estee.

Americans Make War Upon Moros

Washington, April 16.—Fear is entertained by the administration that the United States has embarked upon a serious war with the Moros of the Philippines. The first gun has been fired by the Moros, and Major General Chaffee has ordered an expedition to prepare for an invasion of their strong hold to assert the authority of the United States.

This action of General Chaffee was taken after he himself had gone from Manila to Zamboanga for the purpose of endeavoring to peacefully arrange the differences between the Americans and the Moros.

NINE RED INDIANS

NEW UNIFORMS THAT LEAVE UNEXPECTED MARK

Honolulu Athletic Club Baseball Team Has Experience With a Dye That Sticks Where Not Wanted.

The boys of the Honolulu Athletic Club baseball team will not be resplendent in their fine red uniforms for some time to come. The new red suits which they wore in the McKinley Memorial game last Saturday and were pronounced to be a "dream" are slowly fading away and the boys realize that they have been done.

When the boys wanted the suits some time ago a sample was sent here from San Francisco. This stuff was taken to a well known local tailor who tested it with water and pronounced it to be good material and fast colors. Consequently the suits were ordered. They arrived in due time and were as beautiful to behold as Joseph's celebrated coat.

The boys were enchanted, donned the suits and marched forth resplendent. But, lo! a gentle shower fell upon the team and the beautiful red of the sunburst began to change into the color of grey dusk. The gorgeous crimson rolled in little streams down the boys' shirts and when they doffed their uniforms they found that the color had been transferred to their bodies so that their satin skins resembled those of red Indians.

At this juncture the color seemed anxious to show that it was "fast," and great efforts in the scrubbing line availed but little.

The Honolulu Athletic Club baseball nine are now like an enchanting lot of pink babies. But they have arisen in red wrath and decided to send back to San Francisco the suits with a note that even in this, the land of eternal sunshine, baseball uniforms must be made to withstand the weather. When the nine next appear in public they will wear their old suits from last year.

Conger's Removal Is Not Intended

Washington, April 16.—Edwin H. Conger, United States Minister to China, will not be recalled from Peking by President Roosevelt to make room for William Woodville Rockhill, director of the Bureau of American Republics, but will be transferred to another diplomatic post equally as important as the Chinese mission.

Sensators Allison and Dooliver had a brief conference with the President, when he was informed plainly that it would be unjust to remove Conger, who had performed such excellent service for his country at the Chinese capital during the trying days of the Boxer uprising.

To remove Conger, it was said, would be to humiliate before the whole world a man who deserves the gratitude and support of his countrymen for the strong stand he took when a less resolute attitude would have been disastrous and probably would have cost American lives.

The matter was presented to the President in such a manner that he saw at once it would not be proper to fail to relieve Conger against his will. And while the President did not promise in so many words there is every reason for saying that Conger will not be relieved from the diplomatic service, but will be transferred to another desirable post.

ARCHBISHOP FALCONI SUGGESTS MARTINELLI

Rome, April 16.—Archbishop Falconi, the papal delegate in Canada, has been definitely selected to succeed Cardinal Martinelli, the papal delegate to the United States. This appointment will not be officially announced, however, until the meeting of the consistory next October. It was felt that Archbishop Falconi's experience in Canada, his learning, his command of the English language and his diplomatic abilities especially qualified him for the Washington post.

THREE GENERALS RETIRED.

Washington, April 15.—Brigadier Generals Isaac de Russy, Andrew S. Fort and Michael V. Sheridan, recently appointed, were placed on the retired list today on their own applications, after forty years' service. One of the vacancies in the list of brigadier generals thus created has been filled by the promotion of Colonel Mott Hooton, Twenty-eighth Infantry, who will be regularly retired for age tomorrow.

CARNEGIE'S GIFT TO COLUMBIA.

New York, April 15.—Public announcement will be made after the installation ceremonies in Columbia College of a magnificent money gift to that institution by Andrew Carnegie. The exact amount is known only to the president and the board of trustees, but there is good reason to believe that it is not far short of $1,000,000. This will be more than sufficient to build a college hall, a chapel or dormitories, to which purpose the gift is to be applied.
